City's Cultural Plan Taking Shape

The Arts play a critical role in Rockford, helping make it the thriving and attractive city it is. That's why we are partnering with the Rockford Area Arts Council on the first-ever Rockford Region Cultural Plan. Our four priorities are advocacy and policy; inclusivity and intersectional collaboration; neighborhood and space development; and youth and arts education.

Get Your Running Shoes Ready!

Rockford will host an IRONMAN 70.3 triathlon in Rockford in 2025, 2026, 2027! This will be the first time IRONMAN has held a competition in Illinois. A huge congratulations to GoRockford and to all the partners who helped make this possible including Rockford Police Department, Rockford Fire Department, Rockford Park District and Winnebago County Government.

Excited to host the 2,400 participants and nearly 15,000 people who will descend upon Rockford!

8th Ave Bridge Replacement

It was great to join Congressman Eric Sorensen and RPS 205 Superintendent Ehren Jarrett to announce funding for the 8th Ave bridge replacement!

This construction will bring a new bridge and sidewalks to help our youngest citizens walk safely to school!

Habitat for Humanity

They may call me lightning on the job site, because I never strike the same spot twice, but I was fortunate to join Rockford Area Habitat for Humanity, which is constructing 11 homes in Rockford this summer and partnering with Rockford on our critical home repair program. If you are able, please volunteer your time or contribute to assist Habitat in developing affordable homes for those in need.

Family Peace Center Fundraising Concert

Thank to everyone who worked to create a great night celebrating the success and raising funds for the future success of Rockford Family Peace Center! The FPC has served more than 2,000 survivors and 500 children. A big thank you to all the sponsors, those who attended and the amazing staff at the FPC!

Nick Meyer for Judge

Please remember this November we will be electing a new Judge, if you are willing and able I would encourage you to support Nick Meyer. You can support Nick by requesting a yard sign, volunteering to walk door to door and contributing money for his campaign!

A Festive Fourth

What a fantastic 4th in Rockford! A huge thank you to the organizers and volunteers who lead our 4th of July festivities. The parade was incredibly well attended, and the fireworks were the best yet!
